

VIRGINIA GREET'S BRIDE AND GROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth Pass
Through State, But Few Get Glimpse of Couple.

ON THEIR WAY TO HAVANA

Little Alexandria Girl Gets Their Autographs and the Whole World Knows It.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, February 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth started on their honeymoon from Alexandria, Va., this morning at 11:18 o'clock, over the Southern Railway. They will go to Tampa, from there take a boat for Havana, which point they expect to reach Thursday morning. They will make the trip to Tampa in the private car Elysian, which was awaiting them in the yards of the Southern at Alexandria about half a mile from the station.

The bride and bridegroom made the trip from Friendship, near Washington, this morning in an open automobile, accompanied by Mrs. Longworth's maid and a chauffeur. The machine went at an easy pace, and they arrived at Spring Garden, which is the Southern's station in the suburbs of Alexandria, at 10:39 o'clock. Mr. Longworth got out of the machine, lit a cigar, and spent some time chatting with his wife, who remained in the automobile. Mrs. Longworth wore a tan-colored broadcloth suit, with handsome saboteurs and a tan hat, trimmed with pink feathers. After they had been together for about half an hour a little girl, the daughter of one of the railway employees, asked the bride if she would give her an autograph.

Little Girl Made Happy.
"Certainly, I will. Where is your pencil?" replied Mrs. Longworth. Pencil and paper were quickly produced and Mrs. Longworth wrote "Alice Lee Longworth."

"Now, get her," she said, pointing to her husband. Beneath the name of his wife, Mrs. Longworth wrote his signature and the date. The little girl thanked them both and went away happy.

She spread the news to a few people at the station as to the identity of the couple, but they were not bothered by a curious crowd, as there were not more than a dozen people in and about the station.

Shortly after 11 o'clock, Thomas Stone, the chief usher of the White House, arrived from Washington and received a cordial greeting from Mrs. Longworth. He brought a note from the President, which she quickly opened and read and called for a pencil to write a reply as she sat in the automobile. The baggage had been taken from Washington, but several pieces were brought along in the automobile.

Five minutes before the train arrived Mr. Longworth helped his wife out of the machine, and they walked to the platform. Mrs. Longworth graciously acknowledged the respectful greeting of the employees about the station, and as the train pulled in, hurried down to the last car, which was a private one, into which she was assisted by Mr. Longworth and Mr. Stone. Mr. Longworth would not let the servants carry his suit case or that of Mrs. Longworth, and had his hands full walking to the length of the train with two suit cases, a cane and an umbrella.

er station shortly before 4 o'clock this afternoon hoping to see the couple.

In this, however, they were disappointed, because neither showed themselves after the train pulled into the station and the only person in the city who saw Mr. Longworth was a messenger of the Postal Telegraph Company, who delivered him a message in his private car. Mr. Longworth was on the rear platform when the train stopped in the yard some distance above the station, but he immediately went inside and did not reappear. The trainmen understood that the couple were en route to Havana, Cuba.

The train made only the usual stop here.

WERE IN FULL VIEW AT CHARLOTTESVILLE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., February 19.—Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, en route to Cuba, passed through Charlottesville at 1:45 this afternoon. Their coming was unheralded, and less than a half dozen people at the station were aware that they were aboard the train. When the train pulled in the congressman and his bride were at luncheon in their private car "Elysian," and were in full view. It was perhaps the first meal they had partaken of alone since their marriage, and they seemed to be enjoying it hugely. They were chatting merrily, and seemed utterly oblivious of everything around them. Only twice during the brief stop of two minutes did the groom turn his head to look at the bystanders on the platform. The bride gave a casual glance as the train pulled out.

Arrive at Greensboro.

(By Associated Press.)

GREENSBORO, N. C., February 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth spent several minutes in this city this evening. They arrived on train No. 29 at 6:51 P. M. A number of people had gathered at the depot to greet them.

There was no demonstration.

Pass Through Danville.

(By Associated Press.)

DANVILLE, VA., February 19.—Congressman and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth passed through this city at about 5:40 this afternoon on Southern train No. 29 for Jacksonville, Fla. Few knew of the arrival, and there was no demonstration. A stop of only a few minutes was made here.

MILITARY FEATURE THE LARGEST EVER

Occasion Will Surpass Anything
Yet Done in Alexandria City.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ALEXANDRIA, February 19.—According to the expectations of the officers of the George Washington Birthday Celebration Association, the patriotic demonstration which will mark the anniversary of the birth of General Washington will surpass all other functions of like kind ever held in this city. Alexandria has ever taken the lead in such demonstrations, and each recurring anniversary of his birth has seen some public celebration in honor of his memory.

The military feature of the parade this year will be the largest ever seen here. It will include United States cavalry from Fort Myer, United States sailors from the Mayflower, and a detachment of United States marines from the barracks at Washington.

Besides the regular soldiers there will be many of the militia companies of Virginia, the First Regiment of the District of Columbia, National Guards, a battery of light artillery from the District of Columbia, and the regiment of high school cadets from Washington.

In addition to the military division all the local fire companies will be in line, including the old Friendship fire engine company, of which Washington was once president, and a detachment from the fire department of the District of Columbia. There will also be a large colonial display and many of the secret organizations of the city and surrounding country will be in line. A prominent feature of the parade will be the number of musical organizations which will be present. There will be fourteen bands in all, and as the estimated length of the parade is twenty-eight squares, this will allow a band for every two squares.

In the evening the Naval Gun Factory Band, of Washington, will give an open air concert at the reviewing stand.

Major William M. Smith will act as chief marshal of the parade, with Marshal L. King as his chief of staff. He will be assisted by the following aides: Captain Thomas B. Cochran, military aide; John H. Trimmer, aide for the fire division; Mr. Julian A. Williams, aide for the industrial division, and Mr. William McArthur Green, aide for the secret organization division.

A great many distinguished guests are expected to be present and will ride in carriages at the head of the procession. Among those expected are Governor Swanson, ex-Governor Montague, the commissioners of the District of Columbia, Vice-President Fairbanks, and many others.

A reception will be tendered to the guests at R. E. Lee Camp hall from 12 to 2 o'clock by the officers of the association and the Reception Committee.

A Desperate Negro Criminal.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

HENDERSON, N. C., February 19.—Norman Jones, a desperate young negro, was arrested under the issue of three warrants and held for trial Friday afternoon. He was held in the jail here.

For one so young his record for crime is great. During the summer he shot through the window of the residence of J. J. Belsche, colored, the ball passing over the chair which had been hit, but a short time later the dwelling, not content he set fire to the building. He broke open the store of Mr. W. B. Moss and has committed many other crimes.

PROBABLY INDICT HIS ANTAGONIST

Congressman Charged With Same
Violations That Doomed
Mitchell and Burton.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., February 19.—The battle royal between District Attorney Holton, of the Western District of North Carolina, and the indicted revenue officers, will possibly culminate in Asheville this week, when a bill of indictment will be sent in against some of the most prominent men in the county.

It is stated that the district attorney has been asked to send in a bill against Congressman E. Spencer Blackburn, of the Eighth District, for violations of the same variety that have doomed Senators Mitchell and Burton. Whether he will comply with his orders is a matter of speculation, many believing that Blackburn's antagonizing the Senate's confirmation of Holton's reappointment will make an indictment seem like revenge on Holton's part, but there are those who believe Holton will carry out his orders in spite of such criticism.

The fight of Blackburn against Holton assumed a rather interesting phase today, when a civil judgment was rendered in Forsyth County Court against Holton as surety for Blackburn for $500, money used by Blackburn in his campaign in the Eighth District.

District Attorney Holton left this afternoon for Asheville, where court convenes to-morrow. Several prominent men from Wilkes and other western counties were on the train, headed the same way, having been subpoenaed, and they were all wondering what it all meant. Mr. Holton was the only one who knew, and he was reticent.

Asked if he was going to send in a bill of indictment against Congressman Blackburn, he replied:

"If I find he has violated the law I will do my duty; that's all."

TEN MILLIONS FOR THE REYNOLDS CO.

Capital Stock Doubled at Meeting
Stockholders in Newark, N. J.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., February 19.—Mr. R. J. Reynolds, president of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, of this city, returned to-day from Newark, N. J., where he attended a special meeting of the stockholders of the company.

The only business transacted at the meeting was increasing the capital stock of the company from five to ten million dollars. President Reynolds says his company is planning to erect another mammoth tobacco manufacturing plant in this city.

WAS BURIED ALIVE BY LOOSENED DIRT

Dead When Taken Out—He Leaves Wife and One Child.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., February 19.—Mr. Eugene W. Newsome, aged about thirty years, was killed at 3:30 this afternoon by a load of dirt falling on him under the Beloved Creek Street bridge, across the Southern Railway track, below the freight depot. Mr. Newsome, who was in the employ of the railroad company, was digging out a foundation for an upright brace for an extension of the bridge, when a yard or more of dirt broke loose and fell on him. He was dead when taken out. The home of the deceased was at Tobaccoville. He leaves a wife and one child.

BOAT OVERTURNED, DROWNING A LAD

Man Who Was Near Could Not Give Succor Because of Depth of Pond.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LEXINGTON, N. C., February 19.—Lee Nance, thirteen years of age, an operative of the Nokomis Cotton Mill, was drowned in the pond at the mill this afternoon. He got in a boat which, after he had gone out thirty feet, overturned. A drayman was near the scene, but the boat broke loose and fell on him. He was dragged four hours before recovering the body. Great crowds of people spent the afternoon watching the gruesome work.

INVOLUNTARY BANKRUPT

Proceedings Begun Before Judge
Boyd—Mr. Inman Injured.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GREENSBORO, N. C., February 19.—Creditors of the Centaur Knitting Company filed involuntary bankruptcy proceedings here before Judge Boyd today. February 28th was set for the hearing before Referee Alexander at Winston.

J. C. Inman, manufacturer, while on the Southern Railway here this afternoon, was struck by a shifting engine and badly injured, though he is alive.
